The 8E Special Costume Pack will feature various costumes, including costumes for Na Wa and Diana. Diana is such a legendary character, so we have designed additional costumes for her. In this pack, Diana will show her different side as a temptress. The designs use the same engine as the limited edition costume pack. The costume pack can be purchased in the in-game wardrobe. In addition to the standard game content, DW8E will also include bonus content like concept sketches, concept artworks, and game background information. This is a total of 2 costume packs. The following costume packs will be available starting April 26th, 2019 on Tokyo Game Show! ●DW8E: Season 2 Costume Pack ●DW8E: Chibi Costume Pack Based on the anime by Shinichiro Watanabe The "Noir and Bloom" design concept introduces a "Temptress" look into Ada's "Blossom" dress. It also shows how the design team can combine bloom/noir, using a unique pattern that changes depending on the position you wear it. The official images of the "Noir and Bloom" concept will be up on the official website on April 24th, 2019. I didn't feel like spending the one and a half year developing the development schedule for this game that could later be used as a reference for other games, so I really had to work on the battle system. Especially for the duel mechanic, I made many sketches based on the
