Download the file bin2bcd and double click it to run it. If you don't have the right drivers installed you may need to first make a copy of your drivers cd. Set the options as follows: Optionbox: bin2bcd Outputfile: BCD.bcd The program will now convert a dump of the contents of the bin and spit out the BCD.bcd file. It will take about 1 hour for the first 16 bits and about 30 minutes for the rest. You could, of course, modify the program to convert from different formats.Q: Keyboard shortcut for create a new
